MEMBERSHIP COMMITMENT

By signing the RES Membership Application form overleaf you consent to receiving email from RES (with or without commercial content) and commit to abide by the Society Rules as follows:

1. Attend weekly rehearsals held in the Fine Arts Building, University of Alberta every Tuesday from September to June from 7pm to 10pm.
2. Miss no more than 3 consecutive rehearsals (unless due to a valid reason).
3. Miss no more than 2 (or less as advised) rehearsals per concert.
4. Advise General Manager of known absences in advance.
5. Request a Leave of Absence for absence more than noted above
6. Attend all Dress Rehearsals
7. Notify General Manager of any change of information shown overleaf.
8. Pay membership fees of $300.00 (students $175) (under 18 $0) in full upon notice of a successful audition. No adjustments are made for partial attendance, joining partway through the choral year or Leave of Absence. In cases where it can be demonstrated that the financial obligations present a hardship to the member, the Executive Committee may, at its discretion, reduce the membership fee.
9. Care for music provided (once membership fees are paid), and return it within 3 weeks of the concert date. Charges will be made for unreturned, lost or damaged music.
10. Pay for music folder and performance costume:
Women - Black velvet top and long black crepe skirt, both individually fitted by, sewn by, and purchased from our dressmaker to ensure uniformity of style and fabric, black hose and black shoes - $160.00. If available, gowns used by previous singers may be purchased at a reduced price.
Men - Black tuxedo suit, white tuxedo shirt, black bow tie, black socks, and polished black shoes - $250.00 (approx)
All - Black folder - $40.00 (approx)

RES commits to:

1. Providing support with new member orientation in the operation and procedures of RES
2. Protect member privacy by keeping personal information safe
